April 2015

Wow! What a trip! Veronica, Rachel, and I had an incredible time ministering in Slovenia last month. We left March 6th and got home on the 23rd. We preached in 5 church services, taught 5 home groups, attended one leadership meeting, and ministered numerous other times to individuals. It was very busy and very exciting to be used by God to bless the people of Slovenia!

The Lord allowed us to meet two pastors and congregations we hadn't met before as well as renew our relationships with those we had briefly met last August.

We could not have done this without you! In fact, you were there too! Your prayers and support helped make this happen. Even though you may not have been at every meeting, God sees you as part of the team that ministered. So, all of us together get the credit and God gets the glory! From everyone that was touched, and everyone that will be touched, THANK YOU!!!

I put together a slideshow of pictures you might enjoy. You can access it at this link:

Pastor Klemen let us minister in both his churches, Šentjur Christian Center and Ljubljana Christian Center. The first time I spoke in Šentjur is available on YouTube. I preached on “Dreaming Big” and “Believing You are Forgiveness”. If you want to watch, you can see Grega and me minister as I preach and He interprets.

Here is a link to the map on the right. It tracks our travels from this trip and some interesting facts about each stop. It reminds me of Paul's missionary journeys.

Before we went, Veronica was desiring to encourage the Slovenians to pray over their churches, and to possibly hold prayer meetings. The ministry in that country would begin to expand incredibly if they prayed in the spirit regularly. While in Slovenia, in one of the home groups, we talked about prayer in the spirit, and then Pastor Klemen asked Veronica to teach on prayer on the last Sunday morning service before we left. Veronica and I both spoke on prayer, and then the whole church joined in praying in tongues. A week or so later, we heard that the church had held its first prayer meeting with eight people praying in the spirit over their church. What a breakthrough!

We will be returning to Turkey and then Slovenia again this June-July. It looks like we will have a small team going with us to Turkey again to minister to the children and youth during the Holy Spirit Conference with Larry & Kay Mills.

Please believe with us for more doors to open and that we will be effective in the places that God sends us. Don't forget to follow us on Facebook! And look for some good things coming to our blog:
