Beloved

I N T E R N A T I O N A L

Hello Beloved,

Veronica, Rachel, and I have been traveling for two months now. We made it to Slovenia on April 29th after touring Israel and spending four weeks in Serbia. We will be here for seven weeks then conclude this trip with a week in Turkey at the Holy Spirit Conference.

The ministry in Serbia went very well. We ministered on God's covenant love and saw people healed, filled with the Holy Spirit, set free, and saved. Being able to connect with all the churches we know and also minister at a few new churches was incredible. It was great to see how hungry they were for God's Word.

"Healing Basics" was translated into Serbian and had just been printed when we arrived. We were able to distribute 300 copies in the churches we visited. More copies were scheduled to be printed when we were leaving. We are also having the book translated into Portuguese for use in Brazil. The cost to translate is $400. Currently it is available for free on our website in English, Slovene, Slovak, and Serbian.

While here in Slovenia we are continuing to work with the churches. It's our goal to support the pastors with prayer, finances, equipment, and teaching. A prayer and finance seminar is now in the works. We hope to record it in June for use on various websites.

Our resident permits for Slovenia expire this month. We applied for them to be renewed and also applied for Rachel's permit. We should have them before we leave for Turkey. Also, God has been sending more missionaries to Slovenia. The pastors have been praying for skilled workers and we are now seeing the fruit of those prayers.

We want to thank everyone that is helping us with prayer and giving. Your financial support has been a very big help. Traveling to the different churches requires flights, cars, gas, apartments, food, and a lot of other things. Because of your giving we have been able pay for these needs and bless all of the pastors with a financial gift when we visited their churches.

Many of the pastors receive about $225-$500 a month to serve their churches. Together, we are supplying the churches with what they need to share the Gospel. It is our goal to help support more of these pastors monthly with finances. If you would like to add to that support please let us know and we will make sure they get 100% of what you send us.

Bible Training Website Coming This Year!

I want to let you know about a very important project we are launching this year. We have been discussing how to do this for several years now, but everything has finally fallen into place.

By the end of 2019 we will launch an online video Bible training site for Slovenia. We are currently planning the content and site name. We have already been given permission from Keith Moore's ministry to put Slovene subtitles on his Faith School videos and to use them on the Slovene website. We are also in contact with Andrew Womack's ministry and waiting for their approval, plus we have contacts with Joyce Meyer Ministries that we need to explore further.

This website will be available for all the churches, leaders, and people of Slovenia. We plan to have videos for specific topics that will help train the believers so they can feel confident in leading home groups and eventually starting new churches. There will also be material for new believers to access that will teach them basic Bible topics.

While in Kobarid, Slovenia we recorded 15 short videos for the internet. We covered topics like prayer, covenant, love, giving, joy, and healing. Veronica even read the sinners prayer for one of the videos. Andrej Zelenjak, who has the studio in his home, will be the main person putting everything together for this website.

The biggest expense for the website project is the translating and subtitling of the videos. Some of the videos will be recorded here in Slovenia with an English-speaking minister and a Slovene translator side-by-side. But the videos from American ministries will require someone to translate them from English into Slovene and then add the subtitles. We think subtitling the videos is the best and fastest option. Many of the Slovenes understand English and would like to improve their skills by listening to the messages in English. The subtitles will help them understand anything they don't know in English.

Please pray for this project as we continue to develop the website and choose our hosting platform. If you would like to support it financially, please let us know. We are looking to raise $7500 over the course of the next year. This will pay for the monthly salaries of our translators and website builders. It will also cover the cost of hosting the website and advertising its availability.

You can donate by sending a check to our address or to Believers' Fellowship. You can also donate online through PayPal at our website below. Again, thank you for all of your prayers and financial support. Please be sure and mark your giving for the website project or the pastor's support. Everything else that comes into Beloved will go toward the ministry expenses. Veronica and I do not receive any income from Beloved International. God has been very faithful to supply our needs through our other work.

Thank you for your financial and prayer support. Your partnership helps make it happen.

Thank you!

Be greatly blessed,

Dan, Veronica, and Rachel Bean
