Beloved

I N T E R N A T I O N A L

Hello Beloved,

Veronica, Rachel and I hope you are having a fantastic summer. We certainly had an amazing spring. I know many of you followed us on Facebook and saw all the places we went, the people we met, and the churches we got to serve. Your prayers and financial gifts helped make all of it possible. We can't thank you enough for all you do!

It has taken a little bit of time to catch up with everything we had to do upon returning to Florida, but things have gone very well. In this newsletter we wanted to let you know about a few things that have happened since our last newsletter and what we are working on while here in the States.

This will be an interactive newsletter. Be sure and click on the links to see the videos!

One of our goals while in Slovenia was to renew our resident permits and apply for Rachel's. Veronica and I both received our new permits before we left. They are now valid for two years. Rachel's had to be mailed to the Slovene embassy in Washington, D.C. I will be flying there this week to pick it up. Having our permits now allows us to travel to and from Slovenia and the EU without restrictions. This will be a major help as our ministry in Eastern Europe increases.

In Ljubljana, we were able to purchase a new wireless mic and some recording software for the church. It came in handy when we recorded six hours of training on finances. We were asked to share this message in Slovenia. It has been posted on the Sprejmi.Si website and YouTube page for everyone to see. It also includes four home group lessons and practical budgeting guides.

Andrej and Lydia have become a huge part of what we are doing in both Serbia and Slovenia. Lydia grew up in the area of Serbia where we minister. She has helped us make several of the connections we have. Andrej has connected us with four of the churches where we minister in Slovenia. We are working together to produce a training website in Slovene. Andrej set up a video recording studio in their home. While there, we recorded 15 short videos on various topics to be put on the internet.

Now that the summer kids' outreaches are over, Andrej and Lydia are focusing on subtitling videos for the ministry website. Keith Moore has given us permission to subtitle his Faith School videos into Slovene. We are waiting to hear from Andrew Womack's ministry, along with a couple others. The cost for subtitling the videos is about $50 each. We want to translate a bunch of them, so your help in this area is greatly appreciated.

Bible Training Website Coming This Year!

This website will be available for all the churches, leaders, and people of Slovenia. We plan to have videos for specific topics that will help train the believers so they can feel confident in leading home groups and eventually starting new churches. There will also be material for new believers to access that will teach them basic Bible topics.

The biggest expense for the website project is the translating and subtitling of the videos. Some of the videos will be recorded in Slovenia with an English-speaking minister and a Slovene translator side-by-side. But the videos from American ministries will require someone to translate them from English into Slovene and then add the subtitles. We think subtitling the videos is the best and fastest option. Many of the Slovenes understand English and would like to improve their skills by listening to the messages in English. The subtitles will help them understand anything they don't know in English.

Please pray for this project as we continue to develop the website and choose our hosting platform. If you would like to support it financially, please let us know. We are looking to raise $7500 over the course of the next year. This will pay for the translators and website builders. It will also cover the cost of hosting the website and advertising its availability.

In Turkey

The last week of June was spent in Turkey at the Holy Spirit Conference with Larry and Kay Mills. Pastors Jon and Maria Friedt joined us with six more from Believers' Fellowship in Lakeland. We had an awesome conference. Veronica ministered on the first morning and helped play the piano during the worship services. I ministered on three of the days. Larry and Jon had the rest of the services. There was a wonderful presence of the Holy Spirit. We prayed for about 20 to get filled with the Holy Spirit and speak in tongues. Everything was video recorded by Thomas and Kayla Traynham so the messages can be used in the churches over and over.

Now that we are home, what's next? As soon as we find out the schedule for the Holy Spirit Conference next year, we'll work on our travel dates. We may make one long trip over the spring and summer, or we could take a trip in both the spring and the summer. If you would like to join us, please let us know, we would love to have you work with us.

Rachel has already started school. She is also taking piano and voice lessons along with performing drama in a Christian acting school. Veronica is continuing her Slovene language lessons and I will be starting my insurance-selling season soon.

Keep an eye on Facebook for our ministry schedule. You can usually catch us at Believers' Fellowship in Lakeland or Faith Family Outreach Church in Clearwater.

Thank you for your financial and prayer support. Your partnership helps make it happen.

Thank you!

Be greatly blessed,
